FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LAKE LOTAWANA MAN RECEIVES 21-YEAR SENTENCE FOR METH, FIREARMS VIOLATIONS FOLLOWING JURY CONVICTION

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced today that a Lake Lotawana, Mo., man was sentenced in federal court today for attempting to manufacture methamphetamine and being a felon in possession of several firearms.

Gregory C. Curnett, 38, of Lake Lotawana, was sentenced by U.S. District Judge Gary A. Fenner this afternoon to 21 years and 10 months in federal prison without parole.

On Dec. 2, 2003, a federal trial jury found Curnett guilty of all charges contained in a three-count federal indictment. The indictment was returned by a federal grand jury on April 1, 2003, in Kansas City.

Curnett was initially arrested on March 23, 2003, Graves said, at which time law enforcement officers found numerous items used to manufacture methamphetamine, including black iodine, as well as several firearms at his residence.

Following the presentation of evidence in Curnett's trial, Graves said, the federal jury found Curnett guilty of attempting to manufacture methamphetamine on March 23, 2002, and of being in possession of iodine, intending to use it to manufacture methamphetamine.

Law enforcement officers found two five-gallon barrels that each contained an amount of black iodine pellets, a precursor chemical, underneath the kitchen sink during their search of Curnett's residence on March 23, 2002. They also found a large amount of high quality glassware and other items used to manufacture methamphetamine.

The federal jury also found Curnett guilty of being in possession of three firearms that were found at his residence during the search by law enforcement officers. Under federal law, Graves explained, it is illegal for anyone who has been convicted of a felony to be in possession of any firearm or ammunition. Curnett has a 1998 criminal felony conviction for possession of methamphetamine and carrying a concealed weapon in McDonald County, Mo., for which he is currently on state probation. On March 23, 2003, Curnett was in possession of a .22 caliber revolver that was found hanging on a hook on the wall in the bedroom, a Sturm Ruger & Co. 9 mm semi-automatic handgun that was found in the bottom drawer of a kitchen cabinet, and a Smith and Wesson .45 caliber semi-automatic handgun that was found under a sofa cushion in the living room.

The case was prosecuted by Special Assistant U.S. Attorney Bruce Rhoades and Assistant U.S. Attorney Gregg Coonrod. The case was investigated by the Jackson County Drug Task Force and the Lake Lotawana, Mo., Police Department.
